

Risparmio Super

Risparmio Super is an app that allows you to compare the prices in different supermarkets. It helps consumers to save their time and money but also helps companies to analyze their prices, comparing them with the competitors' and provides useful insights about the customer behaviour.

Be the first of your friends to like this.

Team

Barbara Labate, Zion Nahum

Contacts

website: risparmiosuper.it

info: info@risparmiosuper.it

Risparmio Super is an app and website that allows you to compare the prices in different supermarkets. It helps consumers to save their time and money but also helps companies to analyze their prices, comparing them with the competitors' and provides useful insights about the customer behaviour.

You just have to localize yourself on the website, create a shopping list, and Risparmio Super will lead you to the cheapest supermarket in the area in real time.

Risparmio Super continuously monitors the prices in more than 13,000 sales points all over the country, comparing 72 mass retail channels' brands. In less than 2 years it became the first price comparison tool in terms of active users and completeness of the information provided.

Risparmio Super won important international awards in Silicon Valley, Moscow and New York.